With Cute Animé Closing Song!
(Guess which animé closing song I ripped this off from.)

WORLD CUP '94

and hi to A'ko, B'ko, and last, but not least- C'ko!

□ "THE RISE of soccer in this country is part of a plot by feminist-influenced yuppy women to emasculate the American male. By denying their children the contact of [American] football and the intricacies of baseball, the artichoke and Volvo set are breaking a male-bonding tradition between fathers and sons." — editorial in the Wichita Eagle newspaper, Kansas, US.

SOCCER IS GREAT!

We've got to settle this, A'ko.

Come Along and See the World With Me

Lyrics by Wilting Widya Santoso
Music- ah, you'll have to guess it.
(A prize for the first non-Aussie to guess it right.) (And it is from a closing song.)

I've got a pair of tickets
For anywhere in the world.
Go as long as you feel up to,
At least that's what I'm told.
But I need someone to come along with me,
Somebody to share all the joy and all the glee.
And I chose you,
'cause you are the
Truest friend I'll ever have.

Chorus:
Come along, you know it'll be smashing
To send the world down upon a-crashing
At your feet- you could then be free!
Come along and see the world with me!

Forget about the office,
Say goodbye to it all.
There's a whole planet out there
For you and me to explore.
An African safari could be mighty fine,
Or try the Himalayas for a little climb.
Anywhere dear,
Long as you're the
Nearest thing to share the fun.

Chorus:
Come along, you know it'll be smashing
To send the world down upon a-crashing
At your feet- you could then be free!
Come along and see the world with me!

And what about your girlfriend?
She lies and always puts you down.
It's time for her to frown.

Chorus:
Come along, you know it'll be smashing
To send the world down upon a-crashing
At our feet- we could then be free!
Come along and see the world with me!

Yaay!
Let's go home now!

Don't you know that someone really likes you
For what you are, oh can't you see that that's true,
'cause she loves you- you could set her free!
Come along and see the world with me!

You could set me free!
Come along and see the world with me!

see you later

Byee...

And so ends another day in Gravitron City. Regards – the Ed.
